

Las Vegas Wedding Chapel Launches TV and YouTube Campaign Featuring Couple Who Said “I Do” at Glass Gardens

The Destination for True Love™, Chapel of the Flowers, announced that their new television spots, launched on YouTube and soon to air on local stations and cable networks across the United States, shows the romance and elegance of exchanging vows at the one-acre venue in Las Vegas, the Wedding Capital of the World.

LAS VEGAS (PRWEB) June 19, 2018 -- It is looking like 2018 will become known as the Year of Love and Romance. America’s sweetheart Meghan Markle became English royalty in May when she married Prince Harry in one of the most romantic—and most viewed—weddings in history, with an audience of 1.9 billion people. This week the ABC television network debuted “The Proposal,” a new reality show hosted by former NFL quarterback Jesse Palmer. Chapel of the Flowers in Las Vegas, known as the “Destination for True Love,” is another authority on weddings, and today announced that their new television commercials have started running on YouTube and will soon begin airing on television and cable stations in major markets in the United States.

Three memorable commercials, at 30, 60 and 90 seconds in length, feature a couple from Australia who recently exchanged vows at Chapel of the Flowers. The bride, Taylor, is an elementary school teacher, and Michael, the groom, is an accountant. The couple dated for 11 years when they decided to get married at Chapel of the Flowers’ Glass Gardens chapel. Taylor and Michael selected the Regal Package and the bride carried a stunning ivory and cream themed “Forever in Love” bouquet that complemented her beautiful wedding dress. The happy couple, now also known as Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, celebrated the occasion with a Tulip Photo session and the renowned Flower Shower photo opportunity following the ceremony.

“Chapel of the Flowers is one of the best kept secrets in Las Vegas,” said Donne Kerestic, CEO. “The venue has been here since 1960, and one of our historic chapels, the Victorian, has been featured in a Carrie Underwood video, several TV shows and movies, yet everyday couples are discovering what an elegant and sophisticated property we provide for brides, grooms and their guests. We decided that a television and YouTube campaign, featuring one of the couples who married here, was the perfect way to show everyone who is engaged and looking for a unique and upscale wedding location all of the spectacular features we offer at Chapel of the Flowers.”

The wedding chapel is one of only a few upscale venues in Las Vegas that provides a dedicated, professionally trained on-site staff at their free-standing chapels, including the enchanting Glass Gardens, the modern and chic La Capella, the glamorous Magnolia, the quaint outdoor Gazebo and the traditional Victorian.
